

The University of Iowa Community Medical Services (UICMS) is looking for Clinical Assistants (MA/LPN/RN) to fill our current openings.

Clinical Assistants must meet any of the qualifications listed below.

- Certified as a Medical Assistant
- Has completed an accredited Medical Assistant program
- A graduate of a health care profession program with a curriculum incorporating the elements of a Medical Assistant program including but not limited to: pathophysiology, psychology, medical terminology, basic pharmacology and medication administration, including dose calculation.
- Licensed as a Practical Nurse (LPN)
- Registered as a Nurse (RN)

Duties of a Clinical Assistant

- Rooming patients
- Preparing patients to be seen by the providers
- Perform point of care testing (blood glucose, urinalysis, pregnancy testing, strep screening, etc)
- Assisting with minor procedures
- Documenting on the EMR
- Administering medications

To view the current openings, as well as a full description of the job duties and benefits, please visit our website at www.uicms.com/employment to apply.

UICMS is an equal opportunity employer